There was a large gathering at Yantie singine house Friday evening when the Neighborhood Whist club of Norwich Town and several guests enjoyed a social time with dancing. Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra of three nieces—C. Theodore Sterry, violin; George Kelley, cornet, and Mr. La, Pre, piano. Professor McCarthy of Norwich prompted for the dancing. During intermission members of the club served ice cream and cake. This was the closing of a very enjoyable season of whist, the club having met semi-weekly at the homes of its members.

A delightful May dance was held Friday evening by the Jewett Business school in their new location at the Sunlight building on Franklin street. There were about 100 young people at the dance which was the first social event held in the new school quarters. Row-land's orchestra furnished music for the dance programme which included fox trots, one stems and waltzes, a moonight number proving a feature. There were May basket souvenirs for the ladies and bon bon favors for the gentlemen. Miss Editian Boynton and Miss Florence Wuttkey were in general charge of the plans for the dance. Punch was served during the avenue. luring the evening.

when an auto truck load of about $2.700 worth of woolen goods was taken from the mill.

Bonds in the sum of $3,000 for Mattoo and $1,000 for his father were furnished. Baldi went back to the New London jall where she is held as a state's witness in the case, having turned state's evidence. Caproni was arrested after court on a charge of burgiary in Stonington and was taken there for presentation at a court session.

Mrs. Carmelia Lumbrella of 330 Franklin street was also bound over to the superior court on the charge of having in her possession woolen cloth stolen from the Glen-Woolen Mills. Several witnesses testified to having bought cloth for her which had been identified as part of the stolen goods.

The hearings occupied all the morning and until 3.30 in the afternoon, most of the time being taken up with the woman's case which was handled first.

The testimony of Baldi, which went over the confession he made in the New London jall to Jailer Reed and Policeman Ralph Diveto of the Norwich police force was the principal testimony in the case. No testimony for the defense was offered in the case of the four men and the aitorneys submitted the case without arguments.
